

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

19-CR-418 (DAB)

ORDER

v.

JONATHAN CARRILLO,

Defendant.

-----X
DEBORAH A. BATTS, United States District Judge.

At the eleventh hour, the same day the substantive submissions were due, Defense Counsel sent by email what turned out to be not only a request to adjourn the sentencing from January 7, 2020 to January 9, 2020, but also a request to delay by two weeks the submissions that were due on the day he wrote to the Court. The letter was not filed on the docket in this case. Further, without prior consultation with the Court, Defense Counsel proposed new dates which did not recognize that the Court is closed from December 20, 2019 until January 6, 2020. Had Defense Counsel consulted with the Court, in addition to opposing counsel, this adjournment would have been avoided.

The sentencing originally scheduled by the Court for January 7, 2020 shall be adjourned until April 14, 2020 at 11 a.m. Written submissions are to be sent to the other side and the Court by March 17, 2020 at 4 p.m. Responses must be submitted to the initiating party and the Court by March 31, 2020 at 4 p.m. Any submissions not made on this schedule shall be waived.
